Taiwan's Love in Africa - 2016 Goodwill Mission http://acc-goodwill-dallas.spearlet.com/

Amitofo Care Center (ACC) is an international nongovernmental organization founded by Taiwanese Buddhist Monk, Venerable Master Huei-Li (慧禮法師). For the past ten years, they have established orphanages and affiliated schools in Namibia, Malawi, Lesotho, and Swaziland. There are three more schools under construction in Mozambique; the capital of Malawi, Lilongwe; and at Mandela View in South Africa that are to be completed in autumn 2016.

Currently 900 orphans live inside the first three orphanage schools. Through different local organizations, ACC also directly supports another 8,000 orphans in the region. ACC teaches local languages, English, Chinese Mandarin and Kung Fu to the children in its direct care, in efforts to prepare future pillars and leaders in the African societies.

Since 2007, orphans from ACC have traveled outside their home region to perform at charity fund-raisers and raise awareness for their cause They also go out to show gratitude to people that have helped them.

In 2014 they traveled through the support of Republic of China (Taiwan) and Taiwanese Chambers of Commerce in other countries. The children have visited Taiwan, Chinese Mainland, Hong Kong, Thailand, Japan, the United States, Brazil, Paraguay, Canada, Mauritius, and South Africa, and were all very well received.

The ACC goodwill program mainly showcases what the ACC children are learning back home: Chinese culture, Singing with both Mandarin and in Taiwanese, Shaolin Wushu, combined with South African traditional song and dance. It's merging of difference culture, with the divergent, different, seeking common ground; it is a delight to your heart and soul!

Our main organizer for this year is Greater Dallas Taiwanese Chamber of Commerce (GDTCC), supported by Dallas Chinese Community Center (DCCC) and UTD Asian Center; sponsored by Office of Honorary Consul General of South Africa in Texas-Helen Giddings and Greater Dallas International Foundation (GDIF). Under the direction of the Republic of China Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and the Republic of China Overseas Chinese Affairs Commission.

All the contributions will go directly to the ACC. Please write your donation check to GDIF, GDIF will send you a tax deductible receipt for your donation.
